

Hotel Business

New York And San Diego Cited For Transactions Activity

Posted 7/8/2011

NEW YORK and SAN DIEGO—New York and San Diego were the two most active U.S. hotel sales transaction markets in the first half of 2011, according to LW Hospitality Advisors.

The two cities had a combined 17 major deals during the period, totaling $3.1 billion. This was roughly half of the total dollar volume for the nation.

LWHA is headed by industry veterans Daniel Lesser and Evan Weiss.

©2001-2011, hotelbusiness.com and ICD Publications, Inc.